Lessons for the Week of March 30-April 3

Reading
March 30, 2020 *Students take notes from slides	Dialogue Introduction Slides: Students please read and understand these pages before completing any assignments.
March 30, 2020 FAMILY DIALOGUE	Listen to your family members speak in the house. Write down five things that each speaker said. Be sure you have your quotation marks, capitalization, comma, and speaker tag. Submit your work under Family Dialogue 3/30/20. Go back to these slides if you need help writing your dialogue.
March 31, 2020 LOCATE DIALOGUE	Students, review your notes and vocabulary on Dialogue before starting this assignment. *Locate 5 dialogues from a fiction book of your choice. Who is speaking? What did they say? Remember dialogue includes quotation marks, capitalization, comma, and a speaker tag (said, yelled, explained, shouted, cried, etc.)

April 1, 2020 BERENSTAIN BEARS DIALOGUE	Listen carefully to the read aloud The Berenstain Bears: The Birthday Boy. (YouTube). Assignment: Review your Dialogue notes. Then listen and write 5 dialogues on a sheet of paper along with a illustration.
April 2, 2020 DIALOGUE COMICS	Read the comics before starting this assignment. You will find comics in your local newspaper (Gallup Independent) or you may have a comic book. Next, draw four boxes side by side and create your own comics and add dialogue. Remember the focus of this week in Reading is Dialogue (What the character or animal says in a book). Also, dialogue has quotation marks, capitalization, comma, and speaker tag.
April 3, 2020	Write a reflection on this weeks' assignments on Dialogue. Tell me what you learned about dialogue. Did you listen to people as they talked? Did you notice any in your books?

Reading: Long and Short Vowels
April 6, 2020 *Students take notes from slides	Long and Short Vowels Introduction Slides: Students please read and understand these pages before completing any assignments.
April 6, 2020 PICTURE WALK	Use magazines to look at pictures and words to determine what vowel sound (LONG OR SHORT) they have. Cut out the pictures and glue to a sheet of paper and write the word and tell me whether it has a long or short vowel sound. Do 10 pictures (5 Short and 5 Long)
April 7, 2020 ALPHABET CHART	Create an alphabet chart. As you read your books, write down as many words under each letter and indicate whether it has a long or short vowel sound.
April 8, 2020	Using the "Long and Short Vowel Sort Chart," find and write down objects from the kitchen that have the long

LONG AND SHORT KITCHEN THINGS	and short vowel sounds. At least three under each heading.
April 9, 2020 VOWEL TEAMS	On a sheet of paper, label it Vowel Teams at the top. Using a newspaper cut and paste words that have vowel pairs. Stop until you've filled up the page. Be creative in gluing them all over the page (not in a list format).
April 10, 2020	Write a reflection on this week's assignments on Long and Short Vowels. Tell me what you learned. How will this help you with your reading?

Reading: COMPARE AND CONTRAST

April 13, 2020

Students take notes from slides

Compare and Contrast

Introduction Slides: Students please read and understand these pages before completing any assignments.

April 13, 2020

You and a Family Member

Start out by reviewing the Compare and Contrast slides and your notes.

Next, create a double t-chart box to show how you and another family are the same and how you are different. In the two boxes side by side is where you write how the objects are the different. In the box at the bottom you write how the objects are the same.

April 14, 2020

Your Room vs
Your Parent's Room

Compare and Contrast your room to your parent's room. How are they the same?
How are they different? Create a Venn diagram to show your work.

April 15, 2020 ANIMALS	Take a short walk outside your house. Sit on the porch, under a tree, or in the back of your truck. Write down things about two different animals that you see as you're sitting there. What do they do? What do they look like? What do they eat? Think about how they are the same and how they are different. Complete a chart to show your findings.
April 16, 2020 CINDERELLA	Find two different versions of "Cinderella" read alouds on YouTube. Using the book graphic organizer complete the chart. How were both books the same? How were both books different?
April 17, 2020 REFLECTION	Write a reflection on this week's assignments on compare and contrast. Tell me what you learned. How will this help you with your reading?
