

Ya'at'eeh Hornet Team,

As we approach the Winter Break, I am sending you all heartfelt wishes to each of you for a Merry Christmas and a joyful holiday season. This time of year is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the past months, cherish the memories we've created, and celebrate the accomplishments we've achieved together.

I encourage each of you to take this well-deserved time off to focus on self-care and to reconnect with your loved ones. As it is important to recharge and reflect as we prepare to welcome the new year ahead. Whether you're spending time with family, engaging in holiday traditions, or simply taking a moment for yourself.

Let us cherish the moments we have shared as a team, and look forward to the exciting opportunities that await us in the new year. Together, we can continue to achieve great things and support one another in our goals and plans.

Thank you for your hard work, dedication, and the positive spirit you bring to our team for all of our students. I wish you all a festive holiday filled with love, happiness, and peace.

Respectfully,
Dr. Leandra Thomas

D.I.Y. VACCINATION.

It's the do-it-yourself vaccine that can help keep you healthy! Regular handwashing is a simple, effective way to keep the germs away and keep you on your feet. Plain soap and warm water work just fine!

EAT BETTER. PLAY HARDER. LIVE HEALTHIER. LEARN EASIER. WELLNESS IS A WAY OF LIFE!

Where do all of our crazy names for food come from?

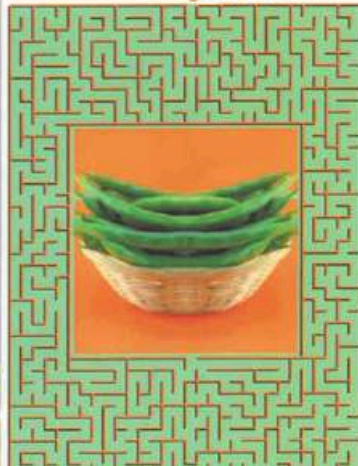

Before it was the familiar name of a popular eating establishment, "chipotle" was (and still is) the name of a kind of food. The word is a Spanish version of a Central Mexican Native word, "chilipocli," which means "smoked chili" -- and that's exactly what chipotles are. Some of the green jalapeños are left on the vine to turn deep red and become somewhat shriveled, like grapes turning into raisins. These super ripe peppers are then put in a chamber and wood-smoked until nearly all the moisture is gone. Chipotles lend a smoky, medium-to-hot flavor to soups, bean dishes, sauces, and rubs.

Set the beans free!

Green Beans are loaded with vitamins, minerals, and fiber. But on our holiday tables, these super heroes are too often overwhelmed with butter and gooey sauces. You can help find your way to the center of the maze, where fresh green beans, ready to be steamed with healthful seasonings (and, if you insist, just a touch of butter!), are waiting for you to set them free!
